

ROMAN BASKIN

Director of the Corporate University of Russian Railways

Graduated from the Russian University of Transport and holds an MBA from the Graduate School of Management of Saint Petersburg State University.

Has generally more than 30 years of working experience in railway industry.

During this period Mr. Baskin was responsible for the technological coordination of the Russian Railways units and divisions in the field of transportation organization, and led the areas of Business Development and Customer Orientation of the Company.

Has been the Director of the Corporate University of Russian Railways since July, 2016.